(Uto Q blog mosquito dragonfly)

When I lay down in my house and casually looked over the ceiling, a mosquito dragonfly came from somewhere and stayed on the ceiling I was watching.

As the name "mosquito" indicates, the limbs were very slender and seemed to be "thin, delicate".

By the way, someday when I was a kid, my father said,

"The mosquito dragonfly was sent from heaven. When a young man who was about to be punished by fire-burning, the mosquito dragonfly flew.

The young man once said,

"If you're in a place like this, you'll be scorched. Good, fly away from here"

However, the judge, who was listening to it, stopped the firing and let go of the young man.

Why did he say

"I can't image such a sweet man do bad things. Let go."

Since then, I have become a man who cannot kill insects.

Even now, every time I see various insects, I often get different emotions. Maybe it's because of this dad's story.
